

Thanksgiving Gifts for the Cook

Now is the time whenever you come in contact with anyone (male or female)...ask them .....what are your plans for Thanksgiving? If they share they are going to a friend or family for dinner, suggest one of your hostess gifts for the hostess.

If they say they are staying home, suggest a gift for whomever is cooking.

Call your customers and ask them the same thing. Most people will just pick up a bottle of wine for the cook.

When I was making the gifts today my husband came into my office and wanted one to send to his single parent daughter as a gift so I added a mascara to her gift also.

Cutting Board bought at Michaels for $1.49 because it was for Halloween

Halloween Pick 33 cents

Hand Cream $10

$15

Gold Charger Plate from the Dollar Store $1, Ceramic Pumpkin from the Dollar Store $1

Pic 33 cents; Hand Cream $1.00 Decorating pic $1; Pull Bow 50 cents

Godiva Candy Bar $2.50

$20

Thanksgiving Tray from Dollar Store $1; Thanksgiving Pick from the Dollar Store $1 Halloween

Placemat from Kohl's (marked down 85%) $1.50

Mint Bliss Energizing Lotion for Feet and Legs $10

$ 20

Plastic Candy tray from dollar store $1
Thanksgiving pick from Dollar Store $1; Pumpkin from Dollar Store $1
Hand Cream $10 Pieces of Chocolate and a bow $1

$20

$28

Thanksgiving Kitchen Towel

From Dollar Store $1

Wooden Salad Utensils

from Dollar Store $1

Hand Cream $10

Mascara $15

Two Thanksgiving Picks $2