

Sing of secretaries! Office angels
Engaged to file tedium away;
Comrades pitching in for paltry wages:
Remember them on Secretaries Day!
Equal bearers of our office burdens,
Though less-than-equal sharers of rewards;
Avid guardians of others' gardens:
Render them due homage in your song!
Initiate the rites of recognition;
Elevate them to their one-day throne;
Sing your unabashed appreciation,
Doing much for those who much have done!
Angels of the office silent serve,
Yet sing this day the praises they deserve
